

Amendments to the Specification:

Attached is a Second Substitute Specification. It is requested that it be substituted for the originally filed Substitute Specification.

The undersigned, who is admitted to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, verifies that the Second Substitute Specification contains no new matter.

Also attached is a Second Comparison Copy, which shows the changes made to the originally filed Substitute Specification and incorporated in the Second Substitute Specification.